About Brittany Morron

A little about me. I have been teaching at PMPS for almost two years now. I have taught in New entrant and year 2 classes in my time here. I love teaching and working with children of all ages. You may remember me from room 7's first year at PMPS in room 13.

About Team Manuka;

Team Manuka is made up of three classes, room 6, room 7 and room 8.

Room 6 teacher is Jenni Slater (year 3) Room 7 teacher is Miss Morron (year 2) Room 8 is Amanda Lee (year 1)

We will be opening up a new entrant classroom further in the term.

Coming Events;

-Family Picnic -Manuka team assembly week 7

Room 7 Class Matrix

Respect	Responsibility
I can listen to others I can sit nicely on the mat I can be nice to others I can take care of others	I can look after others when they need help I can be responsible for my own behaviour I can manage myself even when the teacher is not looking I can keep my hands to myself I can look after our environment
Excellence I can do my best I can do the right thing	Resilience I can keep on going even when things get hard or tricky I can try things that are hard and I don't give up.

Homework Expectations;

Each child will be given a book to read each night. It is expected that the book is to be returned the next morning, your child will not get another book until it is returned.

Mathletics is an app you can download on your ipad or use on your computer. This will be an option to use at home as extra homework.
